

Canarias Crea DIS-PLAY, showcase of advanced music and related arts from Canary Islands, will be present at Transmediale 11, the most important festival for digital media that will take place in different locations of Berlin from January 28th until February 6th.

This project, supported by the Government of Canary Islands through its program Canarias Crea and Instituto Cervantes, will offer different activities like exhibitions, concerts and interactions between Canary islands and Berlin artists.

Neurospasta. an audio-visual exhibition part of the Transmediale 2011 official program will take place at Instituto Cervantes Berlin from January 28 until February 6 including works by Cristina Ruano, Irene Leon, Amanda Lopez, Cynthia Rodriguez and Luis Ortiz

The exhibition opening will take place on January 28 at 19:00 and it will include a multichannel live performance by LOD and Carmelo Fernández taking the audience to a new multi-sensorial experience. By covering the eyes of the listeners with masks and by moving different sound sources around the room each person will get a unique experience from the live interpretation of Neurospasta.

Right after the exhibition opening, Canarias Crea Dis-play will present 3 audio visual concerts by Juan Matos Capote, Bas y Robert Lippok + Enrique Cardenes that will take place on the Instituto Cervantes auditorium. These performances will be part of the Digital Arts and Sound (DAS) Weekend, a Transmediale 11 presentation event that will take place on different venues from Berlin.
